

ABOUT THE AUTHOR WRITING AS MELCHIZEDEK

Since August AD 1974 until now, this Author has been shown multiple events in the future by way of night-time and day-time dreams and visions, and from within certain tracts of his written works also.

From the sinking of Ted Heath's yacht, the first written vision, that transpired some seven weeks later in September AD 1974, to the collapse of the Twin World Trade Center Towers, given in a dream exactly one month earlier in August AD 2001, this Author has witnessed literally hundred of future events before they came to pass in three dimensional reality.

Multitudes have been smaller and more insignificant events, whilst others have changed the course of this Author's personal history, and, in some written cases, altered the passage of some events in recent world history.

This very truthful Testimony allows this Author some Authority in writing in such an affirmative style herein, regarding the host of topics covered in the Opposite Is True.

Aside from being a writer, this Author is also a Designer, Inventor and Graphic Artist, having also created and published the largest, commercially available Board Game in the world, GALAXION, a Guinness World Record Entry as such, from

AD 1995 thru AD 2005. His entire Portfolio, including multiple websites, can be studied through the following web link :
